THE WORD OF FAITH

...the Holy Ghost came on them...."
Acts 19:6

QUESTION: If you are desirous of receiving the baptism in the Holy Spirit and somehow you do not, what are some things that could be keeping you from it?

(In a seminar on the Holy Spirit, the above question was asked during a question and answer session. Several inquiries of the same nature have recently been received in our office. The answer given by Brother Hagin during that session will help those of you now desiring to receive the baptism in the Holy Spirit as well as those of you desiring to help others, and we sense the Holy Spirit's leading to print that answer at this time.)

ANSWER: Actually, if you have been really born-again and are walking in fellowship with God (of course, if you are out of fellowship you will have to get back in) there are only two things that can keep you from receiving; either (1) a lack of faith, or (2) a lack of yieldedness. And this is how you can tell which it is. If it is a lack of faith, you will not sense or feel the Spirit of God move upon you and in you. This is because it is your faith that receives the gift--that activates the moving of the Holy Spirit upon you.

In 1950, Jesus appeared to me in a vision and told me to lay hands on people to receive the Holy Ghost. He said, "You quote to them Acts 19:6 which says, 'And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them....' Then tell the candidates who come to receive the Holy Ghost that I told you to tell them that when you put your hands on them, the Holy Ghost will come upon them. And that they are to perform the act of receiving Him."

Jesus went on to tell me, "Tell the candidates then that I told you to tell them that their tongues, or lips, will seem to want to say something that isn't English. Tell them then to lift their voices and speak out whatever supernatural syllable or word seems easy to speak."

A LACK OF FAITH

Now if a person believes he receives, he will say, "I receive Him. I receive the Gift." (It must be said in faith, of course. If you just say it out of your head, nothing will happen.) When you do say that in faith, the Spirit will immediately begin to move on you and in you. And He will move upon your vocal organs.

If a lack of faith is involved, you will not sense this moving. So I often stop and ask, "Did you sense the Spirit of God move upon you? Did your tongue seem to want to say something that wasn't English?" (Or, as it was in my own case, I ask if there were words down inside which seemed to sort of boil up.) If their answer is no, then it is a lack of faith.

And since "faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God" (Rom. 10:17), I say to them, "Go back over the Scriptures again carefully. In the Acts of the Apostles see how they received. Read what it says about the 'laying on of hands.' Build your faith. School yourself into faith."

Concerning the woman with the issue of blood who touched Jesus' clothes, Mark 5:28 says, "For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole." The Greek says here, "For she kept saying."

And so I often say to folks who are hard chronic cases, as we call them, having been seeking many years, "Read what the Word says about the laying on of hands to receive the Holy Spirit. Then for the next 24 hours keep saying, 'The next time I go and he lays his hands on me, I will receive the Holy Ghost and speak with other tongues.' Not one has failed to receive. Those who have struggled for years have come and when hands were laid on them they have instantly received and spoken with other tongues. You can school yourself into faith.

A LACK OF YIELDING

Now, secondly, if the Holy Spirit does come and you sense His moving, you must cooperate with Him.

At times, when I have asked someone, "Did it seem as if your tongue wanted to say something which wasn't English?" he has replied, "It was all I could do to keep it from it."

You're not supposed to keep it from it! You are supposed to speak.

Many people get into the natural entirely. They are expecting something to suddenly come down on them and grab them and make them do something they wouldn't want to do. Many seem to be waiting for God to grab them and pour something down them. It appears that some think that when God gets ready it will be as though He turns a little radio on inside you and it will start talking. But it doesn't work that way.

The Scripture says, "And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues..." (Acts 2:4). They is the subject of the sentence. They were all filled and they began to speak with other tongues. We make a mistake in not teaching people what to expect and how to yield to God.

When folks get down and seek and seek and seek God in the dark and don't receive, sometimes someone will slap them on the back and say, "Better luck next time." But you don't receive the Holy Ghost by luck. You receive Him by faith!"

We need light and the Word of God enlightens. "The entrance of thy words giveth light" (Ps. 119:130). "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path" (Ps. 119:105).

We can help people be able to respond or yield to the Spirit. We held a meeting in Texas a few years ago and a lady in the congregation wrote her friend who lived some distance away, "Come down and get the Holy Ghost! Everybody down here is receiving the Holy Spirit." And so, her friend, a school teacher, left Friday after classes and drove down for the weekend. In the Friday night service as I laid hands on her I knew the Holy Spirit came on her. The Lord had told me in the vision how I could tell and I knew that He had come. But she did not perform the act of receiving and yielding to Him. On Saturday night I laid hands on her again and she didn't receive.

Then on Sunday morning after I had preached I turned the service over to the pastor. This lady stood up and addressed the pastor, "Brother, I have come all this way after my friend wrote that everyone was receiving. (Everyone who had come except her had received. However she had not been in the two weeks of teaching services.) I have to start back to be there for school in the morning and I wonder if Brother Hagin would lay hands on me again this morning and pray." Desperation was written on her face and you could see that she was hungry for God. So I laid hands on her again and again I knew the Spirit came upon her, but still she did not receive. It was getting late so I finally turned the service back again to the pastor and I walked off the platform and out the side door. As I was walking through the parking lot I noticed that she and her friend had left the service too and were sitting in their car. I felt so sorry for her and I quickly said to the Lord in my spirit, (And here is something you need to do--depend on the Holy Spirit to help you in helping others. He can show you exactly what to do.) "Lord, how can I help her?" Just like a flash He showed me. It came as a revelation on the inside. In my spirit I knew what it was that hindered her--she thought that the Holy Ghost was going to do the speaking in tongues. I knew the Scripture that would help her and what I needed to do.

I walked up to the car and handed her my Bible opened to Acts 2:4, "Sister, would you mind reading that verse aloud please," I requested. So she read, "And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance." She looked up at me questioningly.

I said, "Read it again." She read it again. And again she looked at me as if to say, "What now?"

I smiled and said, "Read it aloud again." She read it again for the third time and again the third time she looked at me with a question mark on her face. I saw that she still hadn't gotten it and so I said, "Read it again."

I intended for her to read it until she got it. And the fourth time she started reading aloud, "And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost and they... Ah! .. Ah! .. Ah!" she exclaimed.

"Why it says 'they' spoke! I always thought the Holy Ghost spoke with other tongues! If I had been called to witness in court I would have said the Holy Ghost spoke through them in tongues."

Then I said to her, "The Bible says that in the mouth of two or three witnesses, shall every word be established. You can't just take one Scripture and build anything on it. That is a mistake. You must take the whole body of Scripture on a subject. Let's get two or three witnesses. Then we will be on safe and solid ground."

So I had her read Acts 10:44-46. And she read, "While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God..."

For the third witness we read Acts 19:6, "And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied."

Then I asked her, "When I laid hands on you a while ago, did you sense the presence of the Holy Ghost?"

"Yes, I certainly did."

"Sister, I perceive that the same anointing to speak is still there. You can speak right now, if you will. Just open your mouth and talk."

Without waiting or stumbling that dear lady opened her mouth and began to speak a most fluent and beautiful language in tongues. And she could have been doing it all that time.

We do have to tell folks what to expect. This lady hadn't known what to expect. But the Word enlightened her and she realized that "they" must cooperate. Speaking with other tongues is a cooperation between you and the Holy Ghost. It isn't all the Holy Ghost and it isn't all you--it is both of you.

You may run into someone who will say, "I want to be careful. I don't want it just to be me."

One young man said, "I know you laid hands on me and I sensed the Spirit of God come upon me and I spoke something

I had never spoken before, but I'm afraid that was just me doing it."

"Doing what?" I asked.

"Talking with tongues."

"It must have been you. It wasn't me."

"Yes," he said, "but I wanted it to be the Holy Ghost."

"Oh, you wanted the Holy Ghost to receive the Holy Ghost."

"No, I wanted the Holy Ghost to talk in tongues."

"He doesn't talk in tongues," I replied. "You receive Him. He gives you utterance. You talk with tongues."

The Bible says that they began to speak as the Spirit gave them utterance. He gives the utterance, you do the talking. Now isn't that a cooperation between you and the Holy Ghost?

People will say, "I don't want it to be in the flesh." Well, we live in this body of flesh and we can't get the Holy Ghost any other way except in the flesh. Peter on the Day of Pentecost repeated Joel's prophecy saying, "And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh..." (Acts 2:17). It is men in the flesh, worshiping God in the Spirit.

And I have had people say, "Brother Hagin, if you ever see me shout, it'll be the Lord."

"Do you mean if you ever shout it will be the Lord shouting?"

"Oh no! I don't mean it will be God shouting, but I mean it will be God making me do it!"

"You will never shout then," I say "He's never made anyone shout yet."

Nor has He made them do anything else. You have to yield to Him. If God made people do things, He would make everyone be saved. But He doesn't. The Word of God is preached and the Holy Ghost deals with people. They have that pull, that urge, that prompting of the Spirit to respond to Christ. Yet

PREVAILING PRAYER TO PEACE

PRAISE THE LORD! Believers have been blessed by our first group study book NEW THRESHOLDS OF FAITH. Good reports have come in since its publishing such as the following...

Dear Mr. Hagin:

I purchased a copy of your book NEW THRESHOLDS OF FAITH while attending the Minister's Institute at Chicago Bible College last January.

We are using it as a text book in our Wednesday morning prayer meetings and it really is a blessing. Incidentally, our attendance has doubled and we attribute this largely to the use of your book...

I am also wondering if you make any arrangements, whereby, we can purchase copies for free distribution over radio broadcasts. We have three local programs and a missionary outreach in the Caribbean with a potential audience of over 5 million...

In His Service

NOW another study book is ready. This one deals with prayer--the cherished manner of communication with our Father. A sample lesson is printed on these pages. PREVAILING PRAYER TO PEACE is being sent free this month to those sending any offering and requesting a copy.

Lesson 2

Seven Steps to Answered Prayer (Part II)

Proverbs 4:20-22
Philippians 4:6

Last week's lesson covered four steps to be taken in order to see our prayers answered:

1. Decide what you want from God.
  - a. Be definite in laying your petitions before Him.
2. Read scriptures that promise the answer you need.
  - a. Search the Bible for scriptures that apply to your particular need.
  - b. With God's Word firmly implanted in your heart, you can be prepared against Satan's attacks.
3. Ask God for the things you want.
  - a. Even though He knows what we have need of, it is His divine plan that we make known to Him our wants.
4. Believe that you receive.
  - a. A stubborn faith that refuses to look at circumstances produces results.

In this lesson we will deal with three more steps which we can take to pray more effectively.

Step 5: Refuse to Doubt

Let every thought and desire affirm that you have what you ask. Never permit a mental picture of failure to remain in your mind. Never doubt for one minute that you have the answer. If doubts persist, rebuke them. Get your mind on the answer. James 4:7 says, "Resist the devil, and he will flee from you." Doubt is of the devil. Resist it.

Eradicate every image, suggestion, feeling or thought which does not contribute to your faith that you shall have what you ask. Enjoy those things that do contribute to your faith.

When my daughter was three years old a growth appeared in the corner of her left eye. It kept growing larger and larger until it was the size of the end of her little finger. It was a cause for concern. I knew in my spirit that it was going to go away. Friends told us, "Oh, it will probably just go away as she gets older." I knew that when God healed her they would just say that it would have gone away anyway, so I took her to an eye specialist for an examination. He said that she had a type of growth that would never go away without surgery. He suggested that she be operated on soon, as the growth would become larger and larger until eventually it would hang down over her face. I thanked him for his diagnosis and left.

That night about 10:15 I prayed about it and said, "Lord, the doctor said an operation is necessary, but your Word says that 'whatsoever you ask the Father He will give it you.' I am standing on that scripture. I have asked you and now I believe that you have done it. I believe tonight at 10:15 for my baby's healing. I thank you for the healing."

I got up off my knees and as I started to go to bed the devil told me to turn the light on and see if the growth was gone. But immediately I eradicated that suggestion. Several times during the night I was awakened and the suggestion would come to me to go see if the growth was gone yet. I just said, "Satan, why should I get up and turn the light on to see if it's gone yet? I know it's gone because I have God's Word for it."

When I got up the next morning the same suggestion returned, and again I pushed it from my mind. I kept saying that I had received the healing last night at 10:15. When I saw my daughter at breakfast that morning, the growth was still on her eye. But the Bible tells us to walk by faith and not by sight, so I ignored the physical evidence of the growth. I walked by faith and kept thanking God for her healing.

Every time our family gathered at the dinner table, I saw that ugly growth sticking right out at me. I just kept thanking God for the healing which took place that night at 10:15. I was so engrossed in thanking God for the healing that I really don't know when it left. Not long after that we were driving along in the car and my daughter was standing up on the front seat between my wife and me. I turned to say something to my wife and happened to notice that the growth was gone. I mentioned this to my wife and she said that it had been gone for about ten days. We had seen a miracle as a result of believing God and thanking Him for the answer while our physical senses told us it had not happened. This is the realm in which the battle of prayer is fought and won.

Our thoughts are governed by observation, association and teachings. We must guard against every evil thought and every doubt that comes into the mind. We must stay away from all places and things that do not support the affirmation that God has answered prayer. Sometimes this means staying away from churches that teach more doubt than faith. "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things" (Phil. 4:8).

According to Mark 9:23 all things are possible to a believing one and I am a believing one.

Step 6: Meditate on the Promises

PROVERBS 4:20-22

20 My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings.

21 Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart.

22 For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh.

Meditate constantly on the promises upon which you based the answer to your prayer. See yourself in possession of what you have asked God for, and make plans accordingly as if it were already a reality. God will make His Word good unto you if you will act upon it.

If God's Word says that He hears and answers prayer, and if that Word doesn't depart from before your eyes, then you are sure to see yourself with the things you asked for. If you don't see yourself with them, then God's Word has departed from before your eyes. If you don't stand by the Word, then even though God wants to stand by you He cannot. The only way God works is through His Word. He moves in line with His Word. He has magnified His Word above His name. If you stand by the Word, God will stand by you.

Many people pray and pray, but they don't pray by the Word. John 15:7 says, "If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you." Jesus didn't just say, "If ye abide in me," He also said, "and my words abide in you." With His words abiding in us, we have ground to stand upon.

One time I went to pray for an elderly lady evangelist in Fort Worth, Texas. Many people had been saved and filled with the Spirit under her ministry. Now, at the age of eighty-two, she had been operated on and found to have seven cancers in her body. The doctors just sewed her back up and told her she didn't have long to live.

Months had come and gone and, though bedfast, she was still alive. When I talked to her she said that she was old enough to die, but we told her to let God heal her first, that if she lived she could still win many more souls to God. Then we read to her Proverbs 4:20-22, the scriptures quoted above, and told her to visualize herself well and preaching.

I saw this woman eight months later and she was out holding evangelistic meetings. She came up to me in one of my services, threw her arms around me and hugged me. It startled me, and then she realized that I didn't recognize her. She looked so different as she had gained weight and appeared in excellent health. She told me that she was so glad that we hadn't let her die. She had done just what we had told her to do. She had begun to picture herself well and now she was out working for God again. She had scheduled evangelistic meetings for the entire summer.

I later heard that this woman lived to be ninety-one years old. She didn't die of cancer, but had many more fruitful years for the Master. Before her healing she had visualized herself dead. But we got her to see herself with what God had provided for her. We have to see ourselves with what we have asked for.

Step 7: Give God the Praise

PHILIPPIANS 4:6

6 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

The words "be careful for nothing" mean "in nothing be anxious." It means, "Do not fret or have any anxiety about anything." As long as we fret and are anxious, praying and fasting won't do any good. This verse says "with thanksgiving," and this comes after praying about the matter. We thank God for the answer after we have prayed for it. Therefore, the final step to answered prayer is to lift your heart to God constantly in gratitude and increasing praise for what He has done and for what He is doing for you now.

Make every prayer concerning what you have asked for a statement of faith and praise instead of unbelief. You can say that you do have faith as easily as you can think thoughts of doubt and unbelief. It is thinking faith thoughts and speaking faith words that leads the heart out of defeat and into victory. Do not accept defeat. Do not be denied. It is your family right, your redemption right, to have what God has promised. It is yours and it will come, so accept it and it will become a reality.

Andrew Murray said, "It is not good taste to ask God for the same thing over and over again. If, when you do pray again, what you've prayed for hasn't materialized, don't pray for it again in the same way because that would be unbelief. Remind God that you asked for it and what His Word says, and tell Him that you are expecting it. Then thank Him for it." Many times people undo their prayers. They get into unbelief and stay there as if they are spinning their wheels.

During a convention in Texas I heard Raymond T. Richey lead in prayer for a man who was in the hospital dying. After we prayed, we thanked God that He had heard us. Brother Richey started to walk away from the pulpit, but then turned around and went back to the microphone. He asked how many in the congregation were going to keep praying for this man in the hospital. Nearly everyone raised his hand. "What do you want to do that for?" he asked. "We have already prayed for him. Now let us keep praising God because He has healed that man."

At the close of the service someone came in and announced that the man who had been dying had suddenly revived and was going to be all right. He had seen Jesus walk into his room and He had said, "I am the Lord that healeth thee." Although unconscious, the man woke up and immediately was well. This had happened while we had been praying.

The Christian man or woman who will practice these seven steps to answered prayer will discover great victory in his prayer life.

MEMORY TEXT:

"If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you."

(John 15:7)

we have all seen people reject it. You can respond, or you can reject.

Demons and evil spirits drive and make people do things they don't want to. The Holy Spirit prompts, He urges, He leads, He gives a gentle push, but you have to go with it. If you don't cooperate, He will leave.

A young man was pointed out to me in a city-wide meeting as being the music director of the largest Assembly of God Church in the city. I was told that even though he had a degree in Christian Education, for over 20 years he had sought but had never received the Baptism in the Holy Spirit. After much persuasion from his wife, he came forward at the invitation but all over his face was written, "I'm not going to receive anything. I'm just coming to please her."

Someone (a minister) had also said, "That fellow is a choir director at First Assembly. There must be some secret sin in his life or he would have received."

Have you heard people talk like that? They do--and it is unjust. The devil is the accuser of the brethren. He says to folks, "There must be something wrong with you or you would have had it by now." If you accuse the brethren then you are joining with the devil.

The minute I laid hands on him I knew by inward revelation and said to him, "There is no secret sin in your life. You can receive the Holy Ghost as you are."

"Do you mean that? I've been seeking an awfully long time. I had about decided there must be something terribly wrong with me."

I assured him there was nothing wrong with him and to boost his faith I said, "I will not have prayed for you over three times before you will be filled with the Holy Spirit."

"You've already prayed once, just now," He said.

"That's right. Just two left."

Faith is positive!

The next night he was sitting right up front and this time his wife didn't have to get him to come forward.

"Brother Hagin, do you still think I'll get the Holy Ghost?"

"No," I said. "I don't think you will. I know it."

"You said you wouldn't lay hands on me over three times without my receiving and tonight will be twice."

"That's right. If you don't receive tonight, you will next time."

I laid hands on him and prayed and he didn't receive

"Do you still think I will get it?" he asked.

"I have never thought it--I know it. You expect it and that is it."

We were having a prayer service the next morning and at about 10 o'clock as I was kneeling I felt somebody tap me on the shoulder. I looked up and he was stooping over me saying, "You've already prayed twice and I just got to thinking, 'Why wait until tonight? They're having a prayer meeting, I just think I'll go over there and receive.'"

"Just kneel right here." When I laid hands on him, the Holy Ghost came on him and he began to stammer a little. Then I said, "That's it, Brother. The Holy Ghost is giving you utterance. Just grab it like a dog does a bone and run off with it. Talk a blue streak."

Long ago I learned to ask people what it was that helped them. We may be from different sections of the country, and talk with different dialects, but people are about the same everywhere. They have the same devil and fallen human nature to contend with. They have the same God, the same Holy Ghost, the same Bible. So I asked him what it was that helped him most.

He answered, "There were three things. First, I had just given up and thought, 'Either this Baptism in the Holy Ghost isn't for everybody like they preach it in my church, or there is something drastically wrong with me. There must be some secret sin in me that I don't even know about.' When you said that there was nothing wrong with me, it seemed to take a weight off my shoulders. Spiritually speaking I breathed a deep breath and said, 'Thank God, there isn't anything wrong with me!'

"And secondly, you helped my faith. I was so far down. But you were so positive. Man, you just got me to believing."

"Thirdly, in all those years, I had been to the place where I had stammering lips many times. Someone close by would say, 'That's the Holy Ghost, Brother. Let the Holy Ghost talk.' Then I would stop to let Him talk and that would be the end of it. But you said, 'That's the Holy Ghost, just talk a blue streak. You talk.' And man, I took off."

TESTIMONIES

Dear Sir,

...Our daughter was healed of osteogenic paracoma (bone cancer) a year ago by Jesus. Your teachings helped us keep that healing plus showed us how to be victorious thru Jesus Christ... Now He has chosen us to teach others and we are teaching the way you've taught us. You know why? Cause it works!! Praise God!

Sincerely in Christ

Dear Brother Hagin,

I have been enjoying the Word of Faith for about six months now and I just wanted to write you and let you know... I have been saved since the year '69. I was once a dope addict and a gangster, but I thank my God for how he delivered me. I am a 23 year old black man and I love you very much....
