About the Cover

...RHEMA BIBLE TRAINING CENTER has begun!...with a UNIQUE STUDENT BODY (upper left photo)...They love the Lord...are tender to His Spirit...there's a call of God on every life. God has given Kenneth W. Hagin, Director of RBTC (upper right), HIS LOVE and compassion for these men and women. God brought them here from various places and life styles...Sam Smith (lower left with instructor Vep Ellis, Jr. in a ministry of music session) has been in the business world...another was a vice-president of a finance company. Professional baseball...the farm...and the pastorate of a Quaker church are represented in the student body...one was rerouted on his way to attend Golden Gate Baptist Seminary.

THE LAW OF FAITH

By KENNETH E. HAGIN (Transcribed from the first regular session of Rhema Bible Training Center, Tulsa, Oklahoma)

In the spiritual realm God has put into motion certain laws, just as He has set laws in the natural realm. Those laws in the natural realm work, don't they? It doesn't take any intervention of God to make them work. They just work. Just as sure as you get into contact with those natural laws or put them into practice, they work for you. Over in the spiritual realm, the same thing is true.

I have come to the conclusion that the law of faith is a spiritual law, that God has put this law into motion, and that as surely as you come into contact with it, it will work for you.

MARK 11:22-24

22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.

23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

ROMANS 10:8-10

8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

HEBREWS 11:1,6

1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

I want to illustrate some things to you about another one of God's laws, the law of prosperity, before we get into talking about the law of faith.

In the last church I pastored there was a man who attended regularly with his wife and family, yet was not a Christian. He attended about a year before he accepted the Lord as his Savior. This incident happened during that year before he was saved.

One day he sent his wife by the parsonage to ask us something.

He was a contractor and just at that time they were building a commercial building downtown. I don't know whether they had underbid on some of their projects or what, but he and his partner were going to lose quite a bit on this building. In fact, their banker had advised them to file for bankruptcy.

She told me how her husband had said, "I know I'm not a Christian but I just can't believe that's the will of God for us. I told my partner, and I know he's not saved either, that I believe God would honor us and bless this business if we'd pay our tithes."

So she said, "He wants to know if you will accept their tithes."

I told her that we would and he and his partner began to pay tithes. Within 30 days they were out of the red and in the black. Praise the Lord!

God didn't bless him because he was a sinner. He received God's blessings because he honored God. God has a certain law of prosperity and when you get into contact with that law and those rules, it just works for you--whoever you are.

When you come into contact with God's laws, they work.

I learned something about the operation of the law of faith when I was in pastoral work. As we say in this part of the country, right "catty-cornered" across the street from the church lived a husband and wife and three small children. The husband never came to church. In fact, I rarely saw him. He worked 16 hours a day on two jobs, and I just caught brief glimpses of him getting in and out of his car. The wife would average coming to church about once every three months, and she never did bring those little children.

But those children would get sick in the winter with colds and fever and the like and she would call me. "Brother Hagin, all three of the children have a fever. They've got a virus and they're all sick. Would you come over and anoint them with oil and pray?"

I remember the first time she called how I reasoned things out in my mind. And we're all in the process of learning, you know. I thought, "I know God loves those little children. But I know that husband's unsaved and if this lady has been saved she's walking in mighty poor fellowship with the Lord." In my own mind I was just certain those children wouldn't be healed. But they did! They always got healed, every single time!

Now south of the parsonage one of the deacons lived. His wife was a Sunday School teacher. They had about five children and the younger ones in this family would have the same virus, or whatever the other family's children had. And I'd go pray for their children, but if one of them ever did get healed over a three year period, I never did know of it.

I remember sitting at my desk one day trying to figure that one out. It just looked to me like God was being partial sometimes. I thought, "How come God heals in this family? They never come to church. I don't even think he's saved. They never put a dime into the work of God. And this other family is faithful. They're there every Sunday, teach Sunday School classes, support the church with their tithes and offerings. They are faithful people in every way, and their children never get healed."

"Lord," I said, "I don't understand it. Of course there are a lot of things I don't understand, but I don't understand why this family over here (and I pointed out their spiritual inferiority, and that the other people were obviously spiritually superior) always receives healing. I know you love those little children. You said, 'Suffer the little children to come unto me.'" As you can see, I'd been sitting there thinking and about half-way accusing God myself.

"Lord, the first time I went over there, I went questioningly. Now, of course, I have faith when I lay my hands on them. But the first time, I wasn't exercising any faith. I know they were healed to begin with by their mother's faith. I didn't expect them to be healed, but yet I could feel the fever cool right down under my hand as I laid it on their heads. I know it wasn't my faith because I had said to myself, 'I doubt they'll be healed.' So I know it wasn't my faith--it was the mother's faith. Now how come this woman of questionable spiritual capabilities has such faith, and then here's our own deacon and Sunday School teacher on the other hand? This woman hasn't heard any of the lessons I've given to the church on faith, and these other people have. They never miss a service. Yet they haven't grasped it."

Then it dawned on me. I answered my own questions.

"Wait a minute," I thought, "she hasn't heard me, but she has a better grasp on what I'm preaching and teaching than the other family who hears me."

I thought of how when she'd call me to come across the street to pray for her children, she'd watch for me. I'd leave the parsonage and almost every time she'd come out to the edge of the yard to meet me. And when I met her there she'd start preaching to me. I never did encourage her--the first time I went in unbelief myself.

She'd say, "You know, I just got to thinking about it, I may not be much myself and I may not be walking in all the light I have, but I know God loves those little children in there. And I just got to thinking, 'There's no use in them lying in there with their high fever, suffering and having this virus. I'm just going to call Brother Hagin and have him lay hands on them and anoint them with oil.'

"After all," she'd continue, "you know the Bible says...."

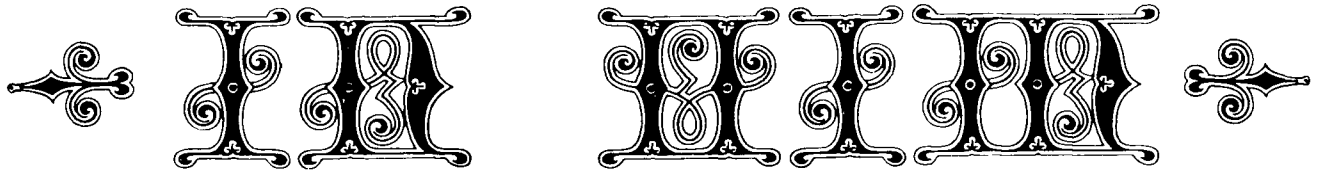

And she'd tell me what the Bible said. She'd preach to me and give me some text.

"You just lay your hands on them," she'd say, "and they'll be healed."

I'd lay my hands on them and they'd get healed every single time.

And then I remembered how it was when I was called to the deacon's house to pray when their children had the same virus. They would know I was on the way because they had called me, yet when I knocked, I thought they never were coming to the door. I wondered what in the world they were doing. Finally the door opened and the wife said, "Oh, it's you."

by Kenneth Hagin

GIVING thanks unto the father, which hath made us meet (able) to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light...
 who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear son:
 in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins.

COLOSSIANS 1:12-14

We should be giving thanks unto the Father, we are told in Col. 1:12, because He has made us able, or as another translation says, "He has given us the ability" to be partakers of something. Of what? "...of the inheritance!" Praise God for His great plan of redemption which has given us the ability to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light!

As children of God, we have an inheritance, and we thank our Father that He Himself has made us able to partake of it. He has given us His will, His new covenant, His New Testament, in which we find our inheritance....

People often ask me about studying the Bible, and although I have many suggestions for study, there is one above all others I present everywhere I go. As a Christian and a believer, go through the New Testament--primarily the epistles because they are the letters written to the church and to you the believer--and with a red pencil underline all expressions such as: in Christ, through Christ, in whom, through whom, in Him, etc. There are about 133 of these expressions which tell you of your inheritance--something you have, or what you are because you are IN HIM....

FAITH'S CONFESSIONS CREATE REALITY

When you find these scriptures, write them down. Then meditate on them. Make a confession of them. In other words, begin to say with your own mouth, "This is who I am and this is what I am and this is what I have in Christ." For you see, faith's confessions create reality.

God wants us to enjoy and know the reality of what He has provided for us. God, for instance, has provided the new birth. And although we sometimes talk like this, "God saved So-and-so Sunday night," actually, looking at it from God's viewpoint, He didn't just save that person Sunday night. He saved him when He raised Jesus from the dead. That person just accepted his salvation Sunday night. Sunday night the provided redemption became a reality for him

HEBREWS 9:12

Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he (Jesus) entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

Jesus doesn't ever do that again. He has already done it. But Romans 10:10 tells us how we obtain the reality of salvation.

ROMANS 10:10

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

The principle involved in creating the reality of God's provisions in our individual lives is always:

(1) with the heart man believeth

(2) and with the mouth confession is made unto.

When you believe a thing with your heart and confess it with your mouth then it becomes real to you. Faith's confessions create realities.

As you read some of the "in Christ," "in whom," and "in Him," scriptures, they won't seem real to you. It may not seem as though you really have what these scriptures say you have 'in Him.' But if you will begin to confess, because you do believe God's Word in your heart, "This is mine. This is who I am. This is what I have because I am in Him," then it will become a reality to you.

It is already real in the spirit realm, but we want it to become real in this physical realm in which we live.

Now we want to share just a few of these marvelous verses with you--and we'll make confessions of them. But let's begin by making our confession of Jesus' great statement in Mark 11:23.

MARK 11:23

For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

Confession: What I believe in my heart, and say with my mouth shall come to pass. Jesus said it--it is so.

II CORINTHIANS 5:17

Therefore if any man be IN CHRIST, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold all things are become new.

GALATIANS 3:26

For ye are all the children of God by faith IN CHRIST Jesus.

CONFESSION: I am a new creature. I am a new creation. God is my Father. I am His child.

I CORINTHIANS 15:57

But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory THROUGH OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST.

ROMANS 8:37

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors THROUGH HIM that loved us.

CONFESSION: God has given me the victory. It's mine. I have it now. I am more than a conqueror through Him, who loves me.

GALATIANS 3:29

And if ye BE CHRIST'S, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

II CORINTHIANS 2:20

For all the promises of God IN HIM are yea, and IN HIM Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

CONFESSION: In Christ I am Abraham's seed. The promises of my Father are mine--all of them--because I am in Him. This brings glory to my Father.

I CORINTHIANS 1:30

But of Him are ye IN CHRIST Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption....

PHILIPPIANS 3:9

And be found IN HIM, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith....

II CORINTHIANS 5:21

For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God IN HIM.

CONFESSION: I am righteous--I have the righteousness of God in Him. I have a right standing with my Father. My faith works. He hears my prayers. He hears me when I pray for His Word says, "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16).

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places IN CHRIST....

Notice that this doesn't say God is 'going to' bless us with anything--but that He already has. This means that IN CHRIST JESUS, from the time you are born again until you step off into eternity, He has already made provision for you. Everything you need, He has blessed you with. It is yours. In the mind of God it is yours.

"You called," I said, "so I came."

"Well, I told my husband, 'There's no use in calling, we don't ever get healed. It won't work for us.'"

When it dawned on me, I saw it. The other woman said, "It will work for us." She was getting into contact with this law of faith. She was putting that law to work for her. Just as the contractor had put the law of prosperity to work for him for a year before he ever got saved. And he prospered.

Jesus said, "...Whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart. but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith." (Mark 11:23.)

Now He didn't say, "If you're a member of Brother Hagin's church this will work for you." No! He said, "I say unto you that WHOSOEVER..." He said that this will work for WHOSOEVER. "WHOSOEVER shall SAY..."

That lady would meet me at the edge of the yard and preach faith to me. She just knew the Bible was true; she'd read it some time or other. And she would SAY, "There's no use in my little children being sick. They'll be healed the moment you touch them." That was her faith talking!

Now though the others were faithful Christians, filled with the Spirit, leaders in the church, yet they got what they said too. Notice the last phrase in the 23rd verse, "...he shall have whatsoever he SAITH..." And this woman said, "Well, I told my husband, there's no use in your calling Brother Hagin. We are just wasting his time. We don't ever get healed. I don't know why it won't ever work for us."

You see, they talked themselves right out of it. You can talk yourself into God's blessings, or out of God's blessings.

How good a Christian you are is not the point. We've got the erroneous notion that certain laws are not going to work for you unless you're just sort of spiritually perfect. But, you know, natural laws work for you whether you're spiritually perfect or whether you're not.

The law of gravity works. It is a natural law in this world of nature. God made this world and put these laws into motion, and they work.

You can get on top of a building and jump off saying, "No, I'm not going to hit the ground, because I'm saved and living for God. The law of gravity won't have anything to do with me." But it will! Whether you're saved or unsaved, pretty or ugly, rich or poor, man or woman, just as sure as you get into contact with that law it will work for you. You cannot violate God's other laws.

Spiritual laws are just like natural laws put into motion by God. Jesus said, "Whosoever shall say...and not doubt in his heart..." And that is a spiritual law. But gravity is a natural law put into motion by God, and it is going to work. What God says come to pass.

Unnatural laws you can dominate, however. For instance Jesus, when the storm came, rebuked it and there was a great calm. Destructive things came as a result of the fall. You can dominate them.

MONTHLY LESSON

You've noticed THE WORD OF FAITH is larger this month. We're going to provide a larger issue as long as the Lord so leads.

You'll also notice there is no offer of a free monthly lesson. Previously we printed and made available another teaching message in addition to the Word of Faith message.

We believe now, however, that more people could benefit from the two messages if they were contained in THE WORD OF FAITH.

you can enroll NOW...

Under the Lord's direction, we have endeavored to design a system of study for ALL BELIEVERS who desire to mature into full grown children of God, able to fulfill their places within the Body, capable of handling any situation the enemy could throw at them. This study is our RHEMA CORRESPONDENCE BIBLE SCHOOL.

Hundreds have already been blessed as they have enrolled in this study. You may enroll at any time you so desire and complete your study whenever you desire.

Some of the studies include Christology, Charismatic Truths, Bible Interpretation, and Healing Truths. We have prepared an informative catalog which is available to you free for the asking. Write today for your copy.

New in our library is this colorful 32 page book for children, NEBUCHADNEZZAR (A Great and Terrible King), by Larry W. Huggins.

Fully illustrated and written in simple verse, it is a delightful story of how God humbled Nebuchadnezzar from a proud king to a humble man of God. A short Bible lesson at the end of the story brings out the theme of humility.

This book will be sent to anyone sending in an offering and requesting it.
