

THE WORD OF FAITH

What Manner of Man Are You?

BY KENNETH E. HAGIN

Paul, in his writings, speaks about three men — the natural man, the carnal man, and the spiritual man.

the 'natural' man is one who has not passed out of death into life. He has not been born again. He has never been re-created. He has not become a new creature in Christ Jesus.

The 'carnal' man is a new creature. He is born again. But--he has not developed or grown. This carnal man may stay in this condition all his life long. He may never develop beyond the babyhood state of the new creation. He is governed by his body, by his physical senses, rather than by his spirit.

The 'spiritual' man is the believer who has developed in divine things. His spirit has gained the ascendancy over his mind, his intellectual processes. His spirit has gained the ascendancy over his body, his physical senses. God governs him through the Word.

THE NATURAL MAN

I CORINTHIANS 2:14

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

The natural man--who has not yet passed out of death into life--lives in the kingdom of darkness. Satan is his god and father, his ruler. He cannot receive the things of the Spirit of God. He cannot understand the Word of God--for it is spiritually discerned. The natural man is the unspiritual physical man. His knowledge is received through the five senses. His mind is governed by his senses. He has only natural human knowledge, or sense knowledge.

Ephesians 2:1-4 pictures him ...as "walking according to the course of this world"...as walking "according to the prince of the power of the air"...as ruled by "the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience"...as doing "the desires of the flesh"--or, of the senses...as being "by nature" the child of wrath.

That's strong language! But, it describes the man outside Christ.

EPHESIANS 4:17-18

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:

Natural men walk in sense knowledge only. Even in the scholastic world, they walk in the vanity of their minds. They are darkened in their understanding. Alienated from the Life of God, filled with their own knowledge, they are ignorant of spiritual things--without God--hopeless.

But, thank God, there is a way out! There is a way to God! Man can come to God by the Lord Jesus Christ! Jesus said, "I am the Way. I am the Truth. I am the Life."

PENTECOSTAL PASTOR

I would just like to tell you what your books have done for me. This is my first church to pastor and I have made a lot of mistakes, and I would let these mistakes get me down, and would have no peace.

But one day I got hold of a copy of your book EXCEEDINGLY GROWING FAITH and it did something to me. So I sent for the rest of your books and they have made a difference in my life and pastoring. My church was running about 69 to 90 but now has jumped up to 135 to 145. Also I have always desired the gifts of the Spirit to work through me but never knew that much about them and I was born and raised Pentecostal. Through your books and teaching I have a new outlook on my life and my ministry.

DETROIT CAMPMEETING--A GOOD REPORT

PRAISE THE LORD! My husband was saved June 1st at the Campmeeting at Troy, Mich. The following Friday our 28 year old son surrendered his life to the Lord. My sister rededicated her life. And my husband's change was so great my brother-in-law (age 62) was saved too. GLORY TO GOD!

WITNESS IN THE BEAUTY SHOP

I am an up-coming Christian who has much to learn. My parents were of two different religions...and we didn't have much of a Christian up-bringing. For this I don't blame my parents...they had agreed that their children would have the choice of any religion (Christian). I went to many churches and had many questions--but my problem was that I wouldn't ask them. While growing up in Sunday School if I did ask a question I would be answered with another question, thus leaving me very confused. This is one reason that for 8 years I more or less stopped asking...

I am a beautician and we have a Christian lady who has been coming in for the last year. She is always beaming and singing and happy. A couple of times she would talk of God and of prayer. But I never sat to listen. Now I know that through her God was trying to reach me. Then, one day I SAT! We talked, I asked questions AND I GOT ANSWERS. And, most of all, I understood the answers. I felt different when she left. I felt super, but hungry for more knowledge. Since then she has brought me books to read, and through them I am even more hungry. I have just finished your book I BELIEVE IN VISIONS....

P.S. Give praise to the Lord for reaching me. I do every day and every minute!

THE WORD IN FIRST PLACE

Just a short note to thank you for the messages you brought forth at the world convention of FGBMFI. It was a revolutionizing experience. Day after day my husband and I experienced God together in miracles and life-changing teachings and situations. First of all my husband was born again, baptized in water, and received the Holy Spirit with his prayer language all that week. His testimony is one of those that glorify God in the highest.

As for myself, a Jewish girl who came to the Lord...four years and eight months ago, I have never known how to release my faith nor use the Word... My life is completely new since California. We are eating and treasuring the Word, putting it first, standing on it, and worshiping Jesus as never before.

As a new Christian my husband had the best start that could ever be desired. He began his new life in California hearing the pure Gospel according to what the Lord says in His Word and not according to what any other Christian is doing or believing.

ANSWERED PRAYER FOR HEALING

I wrote and requested prayer a couple of weeks ago--for a tumor in the abdominal area. A week later, the doctor couldn't find any trace of it. Praise the Lord!

The Lord had also given me a Bible verse--I John 5:14-15.

Thank you so much for taking the time in my behalf and for the special letter following....

RBTC IN ITS SECOND YEAR!
Seems like only yesterday... as the old saying goes...that we were telling you how God had dealt with Brother Hagin's heart about a training center for those He called into the ministry... A place where they could learn to give His Word first place... how to walk in faith in that Word...how to know and listen to the Holy Spirit's leadership in their ministries...where they could study the Gifts of the Spirit and their operation...Healing... etc. Last May we graduated 58 from the charter class...And now we're in the second year! ...On September 4th, 220 men and women with the call of God on their lives to the ministry enrolled at RBTC. They come from 37 states and 2 foreign countries.

What Manner of Man Are You?

NEW CREATURES

The Babes

I CORINTHIANS 3:1-3

1 And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

The Greek word translated "carnal" here is rendered as "carnal" in some King James passages, and as "fleshly" in others. It describes a man who is governed by his physical senses. His flesh dominates him. Though he is born again and is a new creature--he walks after the order of natural men.

Paul is writing here to born again, Spirit-filled, believers. Even to a church where all the gifts of the Spirit operate. "Ye come behind in no good gift," he wrote, bragging on them a little before starting to correct them. (I Cor. 1:7.) He said they didn't come behind in utterance--the utterance gifts. (See vs. 5.) We see that when we get over to where he did correct them, for they were all trying to talk in tongues at once.

Yet, he said, "I could not speak unto you as unto spiritual (men), but as unto carnal (men), even as unto babes." The carnal Christian, then, is a babe.

Certain signs of their carnal state gave them away. "For whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?"

The world walks in envy, and strife, and division. That's easy to see. And James said, "This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish." Paul was telling the Corinthians that even though they had been born again, they were still walking as mere men, as common men, as natural men who had never been born again.

They were letting their flesh dominate them. One modern translation--instead of saying "you are carnal"--says "you are body ruled." That's a good translation. In other words, the outward man--the body which is not yet redeemed--ruled. It should have been that the inward man--the man who is a new man in Christ with the Holy Ghost dwelling in him--ruled and dominated.

Too often in Christians this is the case. The outward man dominates the inward. As long as he does, they remain babies and carnal. They will walk just as natural men walk.

But notice that Paul said, "I fed you with milk..." He wanted to help these Corinthians to get to growing.

God wants us to grow. The Bible says, "As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby" (I Pet. 2:2.)

You cannot get out of the "carnal" state in any other way than to grow out of it. It is so important for Christians to outgrow this carnal stage and become spiritual. I believe we want to.

GROWING UP

What is spirituality? Some think being spiritual would be exercising a spiritual gift. But that couldn't be so. The Corinthians were carnal and babes and all the gifts of the Spirit operated in their church. That isn't what makes you grow.

WHAT MAKES YOU GROW IS IN THE WORD. The sincere milk of the Word will help you grow out of the babyhood stage.

EPHESIANS 4:13-15

13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect (mature) man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ.

This talks about "growing up." (Vs. 15.) The word translated "knowledge" in verse 13 means "exact or full knowledge." What makes you grow into a mature full grown believer is exact and full knowledge of the Son of God. It is in the Word that we gain the full knowledge of Him...of what we are in Him...of God's great plan...of His kingdom and its laws.

THE SPIRITUAL WALK

The Corinthians had not learned the love law, nor the love walk. Jesus told His followers, "A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another" (Jn. 13:34.) When you love one another, and walk in love, you won't walk in envy and strife, jealousy and division.

When you are spiritual you learn the love law, you learn the love walk. When we start walking in divine love, Christian love, Bible love, the God kind of love--not human love, human love is jealous and envious--we stop being jealous. We stop strife and bitterness and backbiting.

Backbiting, bitterness, jealousy, envy, etc., are signs of underdevelopment on the part of the believer.

What causes envy, strife, division? It's because people are sensitive and easily hurt, selfish. And as long as you are selfish, sensitive, and easily hurt, you are a babe in Christ.

I didn't say you weren't saved.

THE PROPHET

THE MINISTRY GIFTS --- Part 3

BY KENNETH E. HAGIN

Some people would tell us that the office of prophet has been done away with: that there were prophets in the Old Testament, and in the New Testament, but there are none today. They say.

But God's Word tells us that when Jesus ascended on high, He gave gifts to men. (Eph. 4:8.) Then it names those ministry gifts:

EPHESIANS 4:11

11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

For what purpose did He give them?

EPHESIANS 4:12

12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

For how long did He give them?

EPHESIANS 4:13

13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

Well, we haven't arrived there yet. Therefore we must believe these ministries, these offices, are still given to the church and in operation today.

I CORINTHIANS 12:28

28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers....

Is there a New Testament church today? Thank God, there is. And God has set in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, etc. Why would we believe we still have teachers, but no prophets? If we've got one, we should have the other. So the office still exists.

WHAT CONSTITUTES A PROPHET?

Commenting on what the New Testament Greek says concerning the prophet, an outstanding Greek scholar said:

He speaks from the impulse of a sudden inspiration, from the light of a sudden revelation at the moment. The idea of speaking from sudden revelation seems here to be fundamental as relating either to future events or the mind of the Spirit in general.

A prophet speaks by direct divine inspiration and immediate revelation--not something he thought of--but something given at the spur of the moment by sudden inspiration.

A prophet has a call of God on his life to the ministry. He would be a preacher, or teacher. There are no prophets among what we call the laity. The prophet is a ministry gift.

One might prophesy--but you are not a prophet just because you prophesy.

To prophesy is to speak unto men "...to edification, and exhortation, and comfort" (I Cor. 14:3). The Bible encourages all believers to covet that simple Gift of Prophecy. (I Cor. 14:5, 39.) Yet the answer to the question "Are all prophets?"

in I Corinthians 14:29 is obviously no.

At least two Revelation Gifts of the Spirit, plus the Gift of Prophecy are in operation in the prophet's ministry.

The Revelation Gifts of the Spirit are: the Word of Knowledge, the Word of Wisdom, and the Discerning of Spirits. (See I Cor. 12.)

I CORINTHIANS 12:29-30

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

This is not speaking of the preachers here. You wouldn't want two or three sermons. These are the prophets giving forth something given on the spur of the moment by sudden revelation. Notice how the prophet who has the immediate revelation is to speak forth.

Notice that the word revealed is used. The prophet has two Revelation Gifts--at least two--plus Prophecy operating in his ministry to qualify him for the office.

"How do you know?" somebody asked. Well, I don't have chapter and verse. But studying the Old Testament prophets you see the Revelation Gifts operating in them. They were called seers because they would see and know things supernaturally.

When Jesus appeared to me in a vision in February 1958 He talked to me for an hour and a half about the ministry of the prophet. He is the one who told me for one to stand in the office of prophet he would have to have at least two Revelation Gifts plus Prophecy.

The two main Revelation Gifts manifested as the Spirit wills through my ministry are the Word of Knowledge and Discerning of Spirits.

Shortly after I received the baptism of the Holy Ghost, the Word of Knowledge began to operate.

Two weeks later the pastor asked me to dismiss the service with prayer. When I shut my eyes--as if it ran off on a TV screen--I saw a person in the congregation, and saw what they'd done the previous night. God showed me to help them. I spoke out a few words and that person ran to the altar, prayed and repented, and everything was just fine.

Many times as I preach I'll see people in the congregation. I know where they've been, what they've done, what they are thinking. I don't always do anything about it. Because the Lord doesn't tell me to. If He does I do. If He doesn't I don't tell a soul. It's not wise to tell everything. The reason some folks never have any ministry is the first time God told them something they blabbed it, so He's never told them anything since.

But just because I had the Word of Knowledge in operation didn't make me a prophet.

Anyone, as the Spirit wills, might have a manifestation of the Word of Knowledge occasionally. God may show them something.

A prophet is one who has revelations and visions.

I went along for a number of years with the manifestation of the Word of Knowledge to help people, to restore folks, to find things that were lost. But then, in the last church I pastored, the Lord said to me quite plainly, as I prayed one day, "I'm going to take you on to revelations and visions."

Notice He didn't say visions and revelations. He put the revelations first.

In six months time I got so much revelation in line with the Word of God--seeing things I'd never seen before--until I said to my wife, "What have I been preaching? I've been so ignorant in the Word of God it's a wonder the deacons didn't have to tell me to get in out of the rain."

Then--in 1950--the visions began to come. I was holding a meeting in southern Oklahoma. The pastor and I were having a snack in the parsonage kitchen when his 11 year old daughter asked us to pray with her before she went to bed.

Just as I knelt--I no more expected what happened to happen than I expected to be the first man on the moon--a white cloud enveloped me. My eyes were wide open, but I couldn't see the stove. I couldn't see the table. I couldn't see the pastor or his daughter. I was enveloped in the cloud. And suddenly, I saw standing about where the ceiling should be, Jesus!

He taught me and talked to me about many things. Among other things He said, "What is known in my Word as Discerning of Spirits will now operate in your life when you are in the Spirit."

WHAT IS DISCERNING OF SPIRITS?

It is supernatural insight into the world of spirits. Folks who only see demons and evil spirits don't have the genuine gift. It is seeing into the realm of spirits. When God gives you a vision, that's this gift in operation.

God is out there in the realm of spirits. Jesus is out there in the realm of spirits. Angels are there--as are evil spirits. But there is much more to it than evil spirits.

IN SUMMATION

The difference between the teacher and the prophet is: the teacher speaks from a logical standpoint, to explain and teach the Word of God. Sometimes the prophet is not so logical even, from the mental standpoint, but under the inspiration of the moment he appeals to our spirits.

The difference between the prophet and the evangelist is similar.

The prophet is more sensitive to spiritual things. As a preacher, he is more sensitive to the spiritual temperature and atmosphere of the congregation.

Sometimes, the prophet does operate in the place of a foreteller. Two New Testament examples involve Agabus the prophet. (Acts 11:28; 21:10-11.)

Yet we need to sound some warning along this line. This only happens as the Spirit wills. Sometimes people who have actually been called of God, anointed and equipped by Him to stand in certain offices have thought, "I'm obligated to perform." So when the Spirit is not in manifestation, they push and try to operate it--and get into a place most dangerous.

We're not to seek guidance through these things. But God does show us things, as He wills, to prepare us, to get us ready for the future.

You don't just turn the ministry on and off as you please. I suppose because God uses people sometimes with a personal message to somebody, they think they can give one to everybody. No! Those going around handing out personal messages and prophecies to everybody are in error and fanaticism, and in dire trouble. They are in the place where Satan can mislead them. (Continued on next page)

THE PROPHET

There is an outbreak in our nation of occult powers. I'm not so concerned about them individually. They don't bother me. But I realize it could bother others. Some folks don't know the difference. We need to learn to recognize some of these things. There are some who have developed their own spiritual nature and have extra sensory perception in the psychic realm.

Some have familiar spirits. Familiar spirits are evil spirits. They're familiar with you. They know about you. And they will tell it to the one who is open to them.

But, there's no use in being scared off because of evil spirits and familiar spirits. God can top anything the devil can do. Glory to God. Let's have the real in manifestation. If we will learn anything at all about the Spirit of God, and learn to be sensitive to our spirits, we'll not be taken in by these things.

We should be open to God. And invite the Spirit of God to manifest Himself among us in the varied and various ministries.

WHAT MANNER OF MAN...? (Conclusion)
I didn't say you wouldn't go to heaven. I said you were a babe in Christ--underdeveloped.

THE BELIEVER'S DIET

To grow you must have the right kind of diet. You must feed on the Word. You can't eat just anything and expect to grow, physically or spiritually.

What is the right diet? We know of course the entire Word of God will help us. But particularly the New Testament. We live under this New Covenant. We're not under the Old Covenant. Many things said back there don't apply to us. Many principles do apply to us. But other things don't--they apply to the Jews.

Certain sections of the New Testament are given especially for us--for the church. Some of the New Testament is given not only for the benefit of Christians and believers, but also to the world and sinners. The epistles, however, are letters written directly to the church.

As a Christian, a believer, spend most of your time feeding on the epistles--from Paul's letters right through the letters of Peter and John. I've spent 90% of my study of the Word of God here. It's the diet I'm supposed to have. It's the message written to me.

There are things here which can't be found any place else. Paul unfolds the revelation of the mystery of our redemption in Christ.

Let your diet consist mainly of the epistles written to the church.

In particular, let it consist of I Corinthians 13. Digest it carefully. Get the Amplified translation of it. It amplifies this great love chapter for you.

Indulge also in the First Epistle of John--all five chapters.

In these two writings, the great love teachings are unveiled and revealed. Unless you feed where this is found it will not grow and develop in your life--even though you have the love nature within you. You are born of God. And God's nature is love. Yet that nature must be fed in order to grow.

I am convinced that if Christians would get into I Corinthians 13 and I John, and live there for awhile--feeding there daily--it would be only a short while until they'd be so different they would have to pinch themselves and ask, "Is this me?"

It wouldn't be long till their homes would be so different it would be amazing.

"Love...seeketh not her own" (I Cor. 13:5.) The babes, both in the natural and in the spiritual, are always seeking their own.

The baby is always crying, "Mother, Johnnie has my cart," or, "Mary has my doll." Strife. Quarreling over its own.

The quarrels in our homes, the divorces, reflect the babyhood state of much of the church. Those who walk in love, who have matured in love and grown up wouldn't be acting this way. This babyhood condition in the church can be remedied only by the study, the feeding upon, the putting into practice of the Word of God.

ALL THINGS ARE YOURS

I CORINTHIANS 3:21-23

21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours;
22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;
23 And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

Do you mean to tell us Paul... these baby Christians, carnal Christians, who were walking as mere men...that all things were theirs?

Yes! It all belonged to them. They may not have come to a knowledge of it yet. They may not have grown to a place where they could appreciate it yet. But it belonged to them!

--THE MINISTRY OF THE PROPHET--

This month's article was taken from our cassette #S566C by the same title. The cassette (price $4.00) provides greater detail. We also have two books THE MINISTRY OF A PROPHET and THE GIFT OF PROPHECY which are very enlightening to students of these subjects.

NOTICE REGARDING BOOKS

As of January 1, 1976, it will be necessary to increase some of our book prices. Exact changes will be advised later. However, we wanted to tell you in advance because we know some of you use the books in your personal ministry and would appreciate the advance notice.

ATTENTION RESIDENTS OF WASHINGTON D. C. AREA

Please disregard information given in the previous issue of 'The Word of Faith' concerning two upcoming crusades in the D.C. area.

Our plans have changed! Rather than two short meetings in the places announced last month--there will be an 8-day crusade at the University of Maryland Center of Adult Education, October 26 through November 2. Check Crusade schedule on this same page for details. See you there!

INTERCESSION

AN INDEPTH STUDY ON CASSETTE

P574C INTERCEDING FOR THE NATION

"Why is our government in the condition it is today? Why doesn't God do something about our national crisis?"

Sound familiar? Perhaps you've even said it. The answer is found in God's Word.

"And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none."

The problem is not with God. The Church has the responsibility to intercede for the government. (I Tim. 2:1-4.) Jesus said, "Ye are the salt (preservative) of the earth...." (Matt. 5:13).

It's time for us to stand in the gap and begin to tap the power resources of intercessory prayer and say to Satan, "Thus far shalt thou come and no farther."

P575 INTERCEDING FOR THE LOST

Paul said, "My little children, of whom I travail (intercede) in birth again...." (Gal. 4:19.)

In Isaiah 66:8 we read, "...for as soon as Zion (the church--Heb. 12:18-24) travailed (interceded) she brought forth her children."

Perhaps you were not called as a minister, an evangelist, or even to witness on street corners, but through intercessory prayer you can bind the power of Satan over the lost in your community or even in other countries, making it easy for the Spirit to convict hearts.

A study in spiritual travail for the lost which will result in bringing forth children into the family of God.

P576C INTERCEDING FOR TOMORROW

In 1943, Brother Hagin prayed in tongues with groanings for five hours and forty-five minutes. The Lord told him at that time there would come a revival of divine healing to America at the close of World War II. "I am well satisfied that in that five hours and forty-five minutes of praying, I was praying about that coming revival..."

The Lord uses willing members of His body, the church, to intercede in prayer and lay foundations for future moves of the Spirit. Like John the Baptist they are used to "make straight the paths for His Coming."

THESE THREE NEW CASSETTES provide an indepth study into intercessory prayer in the Spirit. Intercessors are the forerunners in the army of the Lord. This month we'll send all three cassettes for the price of $10.00. Individual cassettes may be purchased at $4.00 each.
