PROPHETIC UTTERANCE GIVEN BY KENNETH

E.
HAGIN

Yea, the Word of the Lord came unto me saying: "There be some that sit here, even now that if it was told thee concerning thy ministry in the future and that which will come to pass this year, and the next year and in the following time.

Yea, if you could look even now and see it,

It'll be most difficult for you to accept it or even to believe it.

But as you go into that ministry step by step; for you'll not plunge into the fulness of it immediately.

But as you go into it step by step and are faithful to follow closely.

Give Me, saith the Lord of hosts, all the glory.

Then eventually you will come into that full orb'd ministry.

And there are those who sit here now, that others who even sit here now, will look upon them and say, "is that the same person?"

Could that be possible?"

Some will say, "Oh no, no! That couldn't be the Lord, I don't know what's happening here. I know something supernatural is happening.

But that couldn't be the Lord. Because, I knew them when!"

But, Ohh! Saith the Lord of hosts...

"That which is past is past, and should be forgotten.

That which is before you, go forth into it with expectation.

And I'll cause thee to stand."

And beside that, saith the Lord, "Who are you that judgest another man's servant?"

Saith the Lord, "Or are they My servants?"

Yea, saith the Lord of hosts: "They are My servants and I AM able to make them stand.

And I will cause them to stand.

And I will cause them to become fruitful because they have chosen to follow carefully My plan, and obey sincerely My call.

And develop in them, integrity and faithfulness and truth.

And so My power shall rest heavily, heavily declare the heavenly message, and blessing.

And many shall be blessed."

No! Do not pass judgment upon My servants.

Very often, when folks have missed it, some have said,

"Oh well, I didn't have much faith in them anyway."

But wait awhile, saith the Lord, "They can profit from their mistake.

And remember that a righteous man falleth seven times, but he riseth again.

And they can rise up! And become more noble than you."

So, judge not thy fellow servant.

And some have judged those who have departed this life and said

"Oh, if they had had faith they wouldn't have died."

Oh yeah! Yeah! Un huh! Un huh!

But yea, saith the Lord of hosts.

"What business is it of yours if I call one of Mine home?"

Yea, does thou not know?
Hast it not dawned upon thee?
Has thou not read the Holy Book?
Does thou not know, that in this realm where I live," saith the Lord,
"That I am preparing many for future work.
For you see the kingdom of God is coming down from heaven upon the earth one day.
And I've declared ... I'd say to one.
"You've been faithful over a few things, I'll make you faithful over five cities.
And another over ten cities."
So why would you judge if I would call one and begin preparation?
Do you think that all preparation is IN THIS LIFE?
Do you think that you will know all and learn all in this life?
Have you not read, "Yea, it has been given unto thee, that even that man of God that stood head and shoulders above all the rest, when it came to revelation,
when it came to knowledge said, "We look through a glass darkly, or in a riddle but then face to face.
Now we know in part but then we'll know, even also as we are known."
Let Me let you in on a few secrets, saith the Lord.
There are some that are chosen vessels unto Me.
And I purposely have called them ahead of time to begin preparations for eternity.
That their training may become even before yours.
For out yonder, out yonder not many days hence...
Yea, it shall be shown before devils, demons, and men, the great plan of the ages. that'll unfold.
So, who art thou that criticizes another man's servant?
Leave your brother and your sister into My hands, saith the Lord.
And say, "The Lord doeth well, the Lord doeth well."
And the plan and purposes of God are eternal.
And they shall come to pass."
And if thou doeth thus, Then thou doest well, saith the Lord.
And thou will have much cause for rejoicing.
For many things will take a change, a turn.
And many things shall change, even in this year.
Those changes, and those things that are coming will be primarily up to you.
And your decision. and what you choose.
Those that choose to walk closely, to walk softly, to do the will of God, to proclaim His Word.
To stand, to speak for God.
Their vision shall be enlarged.
Their ministry shall be greatly illumined, and anointed...
And it shall be widespread.
Those who choose rather, to walk in their own way and make their own choices for the natural shall deteriorate and shall be cast aside upon the spiritual junkheap.
But you shall have no cause, no cause! No cause!
To turn back or to look back.
You shall have no cause not to succeed.
You shall have no cause.

Neither will you be able to lay the fault at other's feet.
For you're heard, and you're responsible for what you've heard.
And you know, and you're responsible for what you know.
And you know something about the move of the Spirit.
And about the unction of the anointing.
And you're responsible to nurture that anointing and to walk in the light of it.
The responsibility lies at your door.
And stands at your feet.
What you do from this night forward is up to you.
Yea, even as of old, ye have read where I said, saith the Lord,
"Choose you this day whom you will serve."
So choose you this day the path that you will take.
And you'll find that the year will grow brighter and brighter.
That ministry shall be enlarged and enlarged and enlarged.
And you'll find that no people in the world come up short when it comes to finances.
And are constantly worried about inflation and you'll look round about and say,
"What inflation? What shortage?"
Ohh! Ohh! There's plenty in the house of God.
For you'll not come up short in finances.
You'll not have to beg because I'll meet all of your needs saith the Lord.
No! That does not mean that the enemy would not throw roadblocks in your way.
But that means, that even when it looks like there is a shortage that you'll laugh in the face of the enemy and say, "I've already heard from heaven."
And walk right on through. Hallelujah.
And you'll not only have enough for yourselves,
but you'll be able to give and help others. Hallelujah.

PROPHECY KENNETH E. HAGIN PRAYER & HEALING 5/20/ I HEARD THE SPIRIT OF GOD
IN MY SPIRIT SAY:
CHANGE IS COMING, SOME WILL BE CALLED HOME; A SHAKING IS COMING.

Change is coming, change is coming, great change is coming.
Change has come and change IS coming in the political scene,
and governmental scene and national scene.
And there will be other changes.
Some good and some bad, most of them good.
But men of God are not nearly as concerned about natural things as they as spiritual things.

Change is coming in spiritual things, in the realm of the Spirit.
The Church is a spiritual organism, the Body of Christ in the earth.
Believers are members of that Body, and members one of another.
Change is coming, change is coming.

Yea! saith the Lord of Hosts, Some have been disturbed because some have been called out of this world and into the next one.
But, yea! saith the Lord of Hosts, there are others that shortly shall be called home.
So don't tuck your head and moan, but rather rejoice.
Because God has called some of His own home.

You see He will continue to prepare them to reign in the ages to come..
And they could not be prepared in this life.
Further preparation must be made to rule in the ages to come.
So ere the year, this year has come and gone.
There are some that stand here now.
And some that are closely associated with some who stand here now.
That'll be called home.
Rejoice! rejoice! be glad of it when the news comes.

Well! some would say, "What about faith?"
Faith trusts God to the end.
Faith trusts God, not just in this realm, but in the age to come.
Faith rests in His Word, and on His promises.
Faith says, "Thou doest all things well." Hallelujah!

Because you see? Saith the Lord of Hosts,
To carry on My program, to do that which I desire to do in these last days there are some that will have to be removed.
There are others that will have to be lifted up and put into their place.
You ask why?
Yea! saith the Lord of Hosts,
Man's wisdom cannot cope with the wisdom of God.
Let your faith be in His wisdom.
And if God should remove one, say, "The Lord knoweth best."
And if the Lord should exalt others, say, "The Lord knoweth best."
For you see these are the end time ... the last days.
And the work that must be done must be done quickly;
And just as in natural armies of the earth.
There are some that become leaders.
And some that are officers.
And some just not equipped to stand in that place.

And some have endeavored to stand in a place where they were not equipped to stand in.
So, the Lord had to say, "We've got to put someone there that can do the job." Rejoice! because the Lord is at work.
Rejoice, because that His army is fully furnished and intact.
Realize that it is not a natural fight that you are in.
Realize that the physical, the material, the natural, the flesh and blood that you say, has very little if any to do with it.

That it's a spiritual battle from beginning to end.
And He's going to put into position shortly those that know how to enter into the spiritual warfare. Hallelujah!
To do battle, for the enemy would move, the enemy would endeavor to bring accusation against God's own.

But be thou humble, and be thou content.
And should He call upon you to be a servant.
And just to wash the saints feet.
Ha, then be grateful and be glad.
For your reward shall be rich.
And should He see fit to make you an officer in the army of the Lord, then take your place with dignity.
Take your place with humble pride. saying, "Lord, I do this for Your glory and honor.
I'm proud to be in the army of the Lord.
I'm proud to be called by the name of the Lord, and to be counted one of His own."

For the work of God will be done,
Yes, change is coming.
A shaking is coming.
Remember that it is written in the Holy Writ that it shall be so.
And that in these END days, and LAST times, LATTER times that which can be shaken, will be shaken.
You see? The Lord would have those that would stand fast, and true, and firm irrespective of the natural.
And all in the natural realm that would deter or hinder.
And so, there'll come a shaking.
Yes! some will be shaken out of place.
And you'll wonder. and say, "How could that be, how could that be?"

But know this that the Lord doeth all things well.
And those who are founded upon the solid foundation of His Holy Word,
the solid rock of His truth, shall stand.
Test is yet to come.
Many have been tested, many have gone through trials, and persecutions, but there are further tests.
Remember that in the Holy Word of God the storm came and beat upon the house that was founded upon the rock.
The storm came and beat upon the house that was set upon the sand.
Both of them had identically the same storm, the same tests.
One stood and one did not.

No! because you are a person of faith does not mean that there is no tests, no trials, no persecutions, or no trouble.
But those that are 'doers' of the Word are the ones that stand.
And though the wind blow and though the storm comes, and though the rains descend, and though the flood comes.
That one is not swept away.
For they are founded upon the Rock. Hallelujah!

Tests will come, tests will come, so be confirmed within your own mind and spirit.
set within your own will.
I'll stand upon His Word. I'll be a 'doer' of the Word and not just a 'hearer' only.

So, I'll not be swept away with others.
But I'll stand.

Change is coming and ere this year is over and another shall come.
Oh! many of us will look around and say,
"My, what a change! what a change!"
But, its all for the good. Hallelujah!
The Lord will lift me up.
The Lord will set me upon a high place.
The Lord will exalt my office.
The Lord will fill my house with plenty.
The Lord will anoint my head with His oil.
The oil of His Spirit.

Yea, the Lord will cause me to walk in His way.
And my steps shall be sure, and firm, and I'll be glad.
I'll be glad, I'll be glad, I'll be glad!
Yea, for the Lord has spoken, I'll be glad.
Hallelujah, thank You Lord.

That will have to be the testimony of some of us, praise God! Hallelujah!
Thank You Lord.
