For oftentime you've cried and prayed,
"O God, O — O God. O God, O Lord, use me.
O God, use me. O God, make me a blessing.
Make me a blessing."

And I told you what to do, and yet you continued to pray, "Lord, use me. Lord, make me a blessing. Lord, make me a blessing."

And on the inside of you, that inward urge -- that inward voice -- is directing you and telling you what to do, and you sit still, and you kneel, and you walk, and you stand, and you pray, "O God, use me."

Yea, learn, learn the voice of the Spirit.
Learn the touch of the Spirit of God. Learn to yield to the anointing. Learn the things of the Spirit of God.

It will not just come overnight to you,
anymore than you learned things instantly in the natural realm. But in the process of time, your body developed and your body was able to grow stronger and stronger through exercise, and your mind developed.

So it is with your spirit. Learning to walk with Me, saith the Lord of hosts, learning my voice, and listening to my Word, feeding upon the Word of God, praying in the Spirit, is spiritual exercise that will make your spirit
keen to the things of God.

And if only the members of the Body of Christ would listen to the Head of that Body, which is Christ Jesus the Lord, then the entire Body would be at work, for there are no unused members in the Body.

There are no unused members in the Body of Christ. And you would hear His voice say,
"Go speak to that one. Go pray for that one."

Give to this one. Do this."

And in the middle of the night you would be awakened, and in your spirit you would know that you should pray, for in another land, on another continent, there are needs, and oftentimes saints of God in danger, for the forces of evil and the forces of darkness come against them.

But, you see, if you would respond to the Spirit of God, and give yourself even unto prayer and unto the Holy Ghost, then He would be able to use you, and things would come to pass on another continent because you prayed here on this continent, and in another country, because you prayed here in this country.

Because, you see, there is a spiritual world that overrides and overruns and oversees this world that you see. And in the realm of the Spirit there are mighty forces, for it is written that we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers and the rulers of darkness of this world, and so on.

So equip yourselves by putting on the whole armor of God and praying in the Holy Ghost — praying in the Spirit — making intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

And the work of God and the move of God — the revival — the wave of His glory — that is already at work within the world — will be accelerated; yea, stepped up tenfold, and then a hundredfold.

In other words, the work of God shall lurch forward. Like you, as you drive away in your automobile, and it doesn't go.

Something's not right — it's going — but not real good. And you wonder what's wrong. You look, and the emergency brake's on, so you release it, and the car leaps forward.

So the work of God shall leap forward as you give yourself unto prayer.

Know ye this, for so many are concerned about tomorrow. So many are concerned about next week. So many are concerned about next month. So many are concerned about next year. So many are concerned about the next year, and the next year beyond that, and the next year, and then the next five years, and what will come to pass in the next ten years? Which way are we going? What will happen in our own nation? What will happen with all of the upheaval, and all of the rioting, and all of the kidnapping, and all of the things that are happening on the earth?

Yea, saith the Lord of hosts, all of these things that happen are caused by spiritual forces. And because the Church — those who are really alive unto God, and empowered by His Spirit — do not take their place, and do not use the Name of Jesus, and do not constantly, daily, stand against the forces of evil, then they move in everywhere they can, even in your own beloved country.

But, you see, as you stand in the gap and make up the hedge, and stand against these things, then that condition and this other condition will be turned around, and the blessings of God will flow, and the kingdom of God shall be enhanced, and the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ shall multiply in number and gain momentum, and men will look and see that the light is shining; the truth of God's Word is going forth; and the Holy Ghost is in manifestation.

Oh, yes, we would see signs. Oh, yes, we would see wonders. Oh, yes, we would see miracles. And many pray, "Lord, that these things may come to pass." But you will also have to learn to yield unto my Spirit.

There is coming — ah, if it could be told thee — you would not believe it at the moment. If the veil could be lifted for just a moment from your eyes and you could see into the future, and you could see the manifestation of the power of God, it would overwhelm thee.

But if you'll just walk with Me and be faithful, and learn to yield unto Me, saith the Lord, and respond unto My Spirit, you'll find that the restoration of this hour shall come in full potential, and you will find that there are those who will stand in all of the fivefold offices.

And there will be those who will be specially sent to certain nations and will become an apostle to that nation like Paul was an apostle to the Gentiles. And I will confirm that ministry and the work with signs and wonders, and whole nations — virtually whole nations, the majority — shall be turned unto the Lord.

And the course of nations shall be changed. And some that are leaning toward Socialism and Communism will come and walk in the light of the glorious Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, and become a Christian nation. Whole nations will be changed.

And in the office of the prophet, there'll not just be one here on occasion that will stand. Oh, yes, yes, many have drawn back because they've seen those false apostles, and they've seen those false prophets that cropped up on the scene and prophesied and said, "I'm this," and attracted attention unto themselves, and nothing happened.

Yea, those who are called of God and anointed by the Spirit attract attention unto Jesus, and magnify Him, and do not desire that "I should be seen," or that "I should be somebody great." No, I'm not anybody great. I'm not a great man. You're not a great man. No one is a great man, neither are there those who are great women, but there are men and women who serve a great God. Ha, ha, ha. And the great God shall manifest Himself through ordinary men and ordinary women. Yes, even those who are subject to like passions as you are.

For, yea, it is even written in the Holy Word that Elijah was a man subject to like passions as we are. And yet he prayed earnestly the heavens would shut up for three years and six months, and he prayed again, and the heavens gave forth rain, and the earth brought forth the crop.

And so you see, a man — a man — not a great man, but just a man. Not an outstanding man, not someone great and marvelous, a great man of power, a great prophet, Elijah. A man. A man, subject to like passions as we are.

And so God will take those who are willing to humble themselves and hide themselves behind the cross, and put them into the office of the prophet, and it will be easily seen the difference between the false and the real.

And so it is that standing in that office he sounds forth the voice of God, even as Agabus the prophet said, "Thus saith the Holy Ghost."

And then there shall be those who will be flaming evangelists, oh, going with a voice like a flame of fire, accompanied with and equipped with gifts of healings and working of miracles and the casting out of devils. And you will see the greatest manifestation of the power of God that has been seen since the days of Christ Jesus Himself upon the earth. Yea, even greater than what is seen in the Acts of the Apostles.

For there you saw, and you read, that the shadow of one man fell upon many, and everyone his shadow fell upon was healed. But there will be people -- there will be a man, for I'll place at least one, and on some occasions more than one -- upon every continent of the earth. And it will be publicized that their shadow fell upon people, and as many as their shadow fell upon were healed, every one. No one will accept greatness or accept praise unto themselves.

But be very, very careful that you give all praise -- for there will be those in this congregation tonight who will be used in that mighty upheaval of the power of God. There will be those, both men and women, who will be used mightily, and will stand in these offices with the full potential of the power that goes with that office, and full of faith will do the work that God has ordained that they should do.

But be very, very careful, saith the Lord, that you give Me the praise, and give Me the honor, and give Me the glory. Take no honor, take no glory unto yourself. Attract no attention unto yourself, but give the glory unto Me, saith the Lord of hosts, and the anointing upon thee will be increased.

And where there has been one person saved here, there'll be ten saved there. And where there has been one person healed here, and one person occasionally here that walked out of a wheelchair, there'll be a dozen people, all at once, just stand up and walk out of wheelchairs. But you will realize that you didn't do it, but you were only a channel that the Spirit of God flowed through.

Healing evangelists will crop up everywhere, and many who are here will be one of them, mightily used of God.

Some of you have seen the revival of old, the Healing Revival that came even here to America. The Healing Revival came to America 1947 through 1958. And some of those healing evangelists went to other countries, and there was some move there, where they carried that revival and that fire.

But let me say this to you, saith the Lord of hosts, there will not just come that healing revival and miracle revival to America. That healing revival will come to every nation, and there will rise up there, among people of that country, flaming evangelists, proclaiming the truth, mightily used of God, and thousands shall be swept into the kingdom, and there will be as many as fifty blind people who will be healed in one meeting on other shores.

And there will be those who are bound by the enemy, and every single one of them will be set free. There shall be those meetings in other lands and in other countries, continents, that every single person, where there are thousands together -- every single person will go away well. And the glory of God will resound throughout that country.

The revival is coming. It's already here. You're in the early stages of it, but you must move forward into the full potential. So prepare ye your hearts and, yea, go forth in faith, and attract not attention unto yourself, but give all glory unto Me.

And then be very, very careful. Be very, very careful about money. Many of my servants whom I've called and placed my Spirit upon, and used in a mighty way, -- miraculous way -- have become mighty money-minded, and have lost the anointing.

Many have not just done what I asked them to do, but they saw that we can do other things, that we can make large appeals for money, and we can do this, and we can build that.

Remember that I said in my Word, "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it." Notice that they built the house, but their labor was in vain, because the Lord was not in it.

Many are building houses, but just because the house is built does not mean that I am in it. See to it, ministers of the Gospel -- see to it -- that you only build the house that the Lord's in. Then the blessings will rest upon you.

But, you see, those who have become money-minded have lost the anointing. The healing anointing no longer flows. The Spirit of God, to a certain extent, is grieved, and the power is no longer in evidence.

Oh, oh, ye who have been mightily used, ye who have seen a little manifestation of the glory of God, repent ye, repent ye, and return unto Me, and I will restore unto you that which was lost.

Do not be greedy of filthy lucre. Do not become money-minded. Keep your mind, keep your affections, set on heavenly things, and the glory of God shall be made manifest unto thee. And the glory of God shall be made manifest through thee. The glory of God, the anointing of God, the Holy Spirit, the hand of God moving upon thee -- all of these terms in the Scripture -- are used concerning the power and the manifestation of the Spirit of the living God. And the Holy Ghost will manifest Himself through thee.

And men's eyes in the congregation -- and the eyes of women as well -- will be opened. And very often they will say, "Well, I saw a cloud of the glory hanging right over that man's head, just a cloud of glory. I saw Jesus standing behind that woman, standing right there behind them as they ministered."

You've seen manifestations of power. Some of you here have never seen. But you see, every generation needs to become acquainted with and see the manifestation of the glory of God. Otherwise the things of the Spirit and the things of the move of the Spirit of God will die. Every generation.

The early Pentecostals saw a mighty manifestation of the power of God, but as each generation came, and now into the third generation, many no longer even speak with tongues. And some in Pentecostal circles are even opposed to it and would not allow even in their services speaking with tongues and interpretation on Sunday morning in their churches. And the glory lifted and left, and churches have died, and buildings are sitting empty. But the glory of God is still manifested in the true Church, and the power of God is still manifested in the true Body of Christ.

And there will rise up — there is rising up — and there will be added unto that army, an army of men and women — young men and women, as well as older men and women — who will not compromise; who will rise up in boldness and courage; and who will go forth to proclaim the power of God.

And the glory of God will come into manifestation, and all the gifts of the Spirit, the manifestations of the power of God, the word of wisdom, men will know and they will understand the will, the purpose, the plan of God. And the word of knowledge they'll know. Oh, you've seen just a little trickle, just a little — a minute manifestation of the word of knowledge — very small. But thank God for it. And as you respond, that trickle will grow until it becomes a mighty river.

And the spirit of knowing will be prevalent throughout the Body of Christ, and will flow like a mighty river. And the discerning of spirits: men will see into the spirit realm and see the spirits.

Ah, yes. Ah, yes. I see that spirit. You foul demon. You ungodly creature of Satan. I take dominion over you. I command you to desist in your maneuvers and stop in your operation. Yes, I see you, foul spirit, over that country. I see you place your hand upon that leader. Take your hand off of that leader of that nation. You foul spirits, I see all three of you that are at work here in our own nation. No, no, no, no, no, no! Don't you know that Jesus defeated you long ago and rose victorious over every demon, and declared, "All power, all authority, is given unto Me, both in heaven and in earth"? Don't you know that He immediately delegated that authority on earth unto His Body, the Church? You know that, you foul spirit, and you know that we have dominion over you.

Now you take your hand off that branch of government. You take your hand off. No, you don't. No, you don't. You desist in your maneuvers and stop in your operation. Yes, yes, and that whole situation will be turned around. And over here, you foul demon. My, my, my. Dear Lord, the average Christian. I mean, even Spirit-filled, tongue-talking Christian, sometimes when you talk about the spirit world, they think only of angels. Well, thank God for the angels, but that world's also infested with evil spirits, and there in our own nation is that political devil.

You foul demon of politics, I know you recognize me. I know you know that. There's no use of my telling you. You know that if I tell you, you have to stop. So you'll stop right now your maneuvers, and you'll take your hand off.

Now you foul demon. Oh, yes, if folks will recognize that — if they only realize that it's not You, Father God, who's withholding from them financially. Because, you see, You made the world and the fullness thereof, and You said in your Word, "the world and the fullness thereof is mine, the silver and the gold, the cattle of a thousand hills . . ." But, you see, Adam sold us out, and Satan began to dominate the world and the fullness thereof.

The cattle of a thousand hills, and the silver and the gold, he began to dominate those things.

And in this world of finance, and we call it economics, a lot of times. Oh, yes, it's the devil who's got that in his power, and he's endeavoring to control it. Now you foul demon, you had to take your hand off my finances. You know that. You did that way back in 1950, and you've never touched them since then. You've tried to. Now you're going to take your hand off. I'll call you an economic demon. Take your hand off of the economics of our nation. Yes, you and all of your cohorts. Take your hand off of them.

Ah, yes. Yes, yes, yes. We've seen some improvement, and we're going to see a whole lot more. (We thank You for it. We thank You for it.) Desist in your maneuvers.

So men and women will see into the realm of the spirit — discerning of spirits — and will deal firsthand with demons that oppose them personally, that oppose their home, their children, their marriage, their church, their city, their state, their nation.

Blessed be God, for with the power of God we will go forth. And there will be those in ministry equipped with the working of miracles. Yes, we've seen healing. Of course, everything God does is a miracle, but ministries equipped with working of miracles.

Keep on praying. Keep on interceding. Keep on asking that these things shall be so. And those equipped with special faith will speak. And they'll say, "Watch — now listen — this will come to pass." They'll speak it forth, and it will come to pass.

And those equipped with gifts of healings. You've seen a minor — a feeble — manifestation of gifts of healings. You see, the Church today has seen mighty little of these things. Now, we've seen people healed through a combination oftentimes of prayer and medicine, but that's not gifts of healings in manifestation, saith the Lord.

Gifts of healings is being healed by the power of God without any other means in any shape, form, or fashion. And you'll see all of the gifts, for remember, there is the plural "gifts of healings" in manifestation, and you shall have cause for rejoicing.

Now, you've seen much of the utterance gifts: prophecy, divers kinds of tongues, and interpretations of tongues, but you'll see that even they shall be in manifestation with a greater power and a greater anointing.

So rejoice and be glad, and declare it so, and don't go away and say the revival's coming. Go away and say the revival is here. For, ah, this is the day of revival, and this is the day of restoration, and this is the time of visitation. And keep on interceding, driving back the forces of evil that would stand against the forces of God.

And, oh yes, let me forewarn you: The time has come that judgment must begin at the house of God. And there will be those who will fall dead in church, just like Ananias and Sapphira fell dead.

And, of course, they'll have to say, because there'll have to be a record, that their heart stopped (of course, they wouldn't die if their heart didn't stop), and they had a heart attack, but you will remember that it was said. Because, you see, that won't happen just occasionally. There will be quite a flurry of it, so much to attract people's attention.

And there will be ministers fall dead in their pulpit. And of course, folks will say, "They had a heart attack." But you'll remember that it was said. For those who do not walk on with me, saith the Lord of hosts, and have known my power, and have turned their back on my power, and have spoken even spitefully concerning the power of God and the Spirit of God, open themselves and open the door unto the enemy.

Oh, no, no, death doesn't come from heaven, and the spirit of death doesn't come from heaven, because there's none there. But, you see, they open the door unto their lives — they open that door — and the enemy of death (for death's not of heaven or of God, or it would be a friend, but it is an enemy, and it is said it is the last enemy that will be put underfoot). And so, no, no, it's not my hand that came upon them, for I do not have death in my hand, saith the Lord of hosts, only life. But they opened the door when they turned their back on the power and on the glory and on the manifestation of my power and of my glory.

And there will be churches — and here when I speak of churches, though the Church is the Body of Christ, I'm speaking of what men call churches — church buildings where they meet to worship — that the glory of God shall fill that place like a cloud, and everybody will see it. And when that glory comes in manifestation, people walking by and driving by in their car, even unsaved, will feel that power. And folks down at the end of the block will fall under the power in their home and wonder what is this strange power that's in manifestation. For the glory of God and the power of God will, like a cloud, hang over whole cities, because you have prayed and because you believed. So rejoice, and be glad, for the anointing of God shall come upon you, especially you who are called into the fivefold ministries.

The anointing of God will come upon you in a new way, and as the Psalmist of old said, "I shall be anointed with fresh oil," you will be anointed with fresh oil, for oil is a type of the Holy Spirit. A fresh anointing — and it will begin with many of you tonight.

Now rejoice, be glad, for the Lord hath spoken.
